COMBINED COUNCIL MEETING: There will be a combined meeting of the Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Council on Thursday, November 21, 2024 at 6:00 PM in the rectory meeting room . Please make every effort to attend. We will be discussing important issues that must be addressed before the year's end including finances, ethics, membership, and parish security.

In his Wednesday Audience, Pope Francis focused upon the Holy Spirit is both the subject and object of Christian prayer. That is, He is the One who gives prayer, and He is the One who is given by prayer. This prayer is always undertaken in freedom. First of all, we must pray to receive the Holy Spirit. In receiving the Holy Spirit, we are assured that he will not resist whether we pray individually or as a Eucharistic community. The Spirit gives us the true prayer, for as Paul says He searches our hearts and purifies our intentions to ask first for the Kingdom, and then all other things that we truly need will come. The Holy Spirit also allows us to call God our Father, thereby allowing us to place ourselves inside God, so that God enters into us. Therein we experience our need for mercy and the desire for it. This in turn makes us prayerful ambassadors of reconciliation if our prayer for forgiveness is done in purity of heart. Pope Francis also strongly asserts that guided by the Spirit, we truly pray as we ought, both personally and in the Church's celebration of the Liturgy which is the source and summit of our salvation, the Eucharist. As the "Paraclete", our Advocate and Comforter, the Holy Spirit not only intercedes for us, but also enables us, in the unity of Christ's mystical Body, to do the same for the needs of our brothers and sisters. These prayers of intercession for others are particularly pleasing to God because they are most gratuitous and altruistic. Francis's hope is that as we look forward to the coming Holy Year, we ask the Spirit in prayer to bestow upon us, and upon the whole human family, his gifts of holiness, unity, justice and peace. In all of this we must always remember the Spirit driven prayer comes from the heart and not from the lips.

-Jubilee Art "Contest:" Please remember that if you wish to submit a piece of artwork, a poem or a photograph to the diocese that reflects your understanding of the virtue of "Hope" it must be received, accompanied by the form that was distributed in the bulletin, no later than December 8th. If you have misplaced your entry form, you may call the rectory for an additional one.
